

Iron County Register

IRONTON, MO. - JAN. 20, 1916.

E. D. AKE, EDITOR.

VOLUME XLIX. NUMBER 33.

BRISTOL FRENCH, the versatile editor of the Piedmont Banner, has been appointed postmaster of his town. A happy selection. We congratulate Mr. French and the people of Piedmont.

BOTH of the papers at Poplar Bluff have abandoned their daily editions and will in the future devote all their efforts to the weekly. Commendable and sensible. I would rather publish a good weekly anytime than a poor daily.

TO OUR Missouri Congressmen: Nine out of every ten of your constituents are opposed to the "preparedness" programme. The negative preponderance is, I believe, from observation, five times that great; but I desire to be moderate in statement. We don't want a big standing army, and your $10,000,000 battleship is helpless against the submarine. Why waste good money upon that which has been proven unequal to the purpose for which it was designed? Let the preparedness craze pass.

AMONG the convicts who were granted Christmas paroles by Governor Major was Lawrence S. Flannery, formerly a Methodist preacher in West Plains. Flannery was serving a sentence of two years from March 4, 1915, for killing Olin T. McConnell, a linotype operator employed on the West Plains Gazette, June 8, 1914. The men quarreled at a boarding house. Flannery resented what McConnell said, and, following him to the street, struck him in the face, knocking him down. McConnell's head hit the curb, fracturing his skull from the effects of which he died within a few hours. When the Supreme Court affirmed Flannery's sentence he was in Toledo, Ill. He came to Jefferson City immediately and gave himself up. Will H. Zorn, publisher of the Howell County Gazette, who was McConnell's employer, opposed the parole and declared that Flannery's assault upon McConnell was brutal. -Van Buren Current Local.

From Jefferson City.

The Globe-Democrat is telling its party comrades that the party cannot win by trying to make an issue on Wilson's foreign policies. That is true. About nine voters out of every ten unequivocally endorse the President's foreign policy; in fact, Wilson has handled all the delicate situations just to the people's liking. He has patiently, yet firmly, maintained peace with honor. Without bluster and banter he has won practically every disputed point with the different belligerent nations, and has brought them to the point where they have agreed to observe the rules of international law and humanity. He has drawn all the republics of Central and South America to us in a strong tie of friendship and fellowship, and poor, old, war-torn Mexico is yielding to his patient, unselfish leadership and returning to the paths of peace. It is the Wilson way, and sane people with serene heads like it. The Globe-Democrat has returned to the old high-protective-tariff tune fork and is trying to lead the brethren in the old song once more. "Hark from the tombs a doleful sound," etc. It's too dead to resurrect.

Grippe.

For the last five or six weeks, the country, from one end to the other, has been experiencing an epidemic of what is generally known as grippe. Symptoms are those of a severe cold with more or less sore throat, cough, pains in the head and about the body. In some cases the symptoms are quite persistent.

It seems certain that the great majority, at least, of these cases are not true grippe. Nevertheless, the prevention is exactly the same for such a case as for the true grippe.

The disease is acutely contagious. Contagion takes place most rapidly by direct contact. The more intimate and prolonged this contact, the greater the danger of contagion. Persons should avoid crowds as much as possible, and if it is necessary to be with those suffering from symptoms which have been described, they should insist as far as possible upon such persons keeping at a respectful distance. While coughing or sneezing, the person afflicted should keep the mouth and nose covered with a handkerchief. Kissing, especially, should be avoided.

The habit which many mothers have of blowing the noses of a number of children in the same handkerchief should not be practised.

There is no specific which will prevent this. The best methods of prevention are a good diet, consisting of nutritious, but light foods, the use of the cold bath daily, sleeping with an abundance of fresh air and the avoidance of excesses of all kinds. Especially to be avoided is prolonged overheating in close, stuffy rooms and railroad trains.

Avoid patent medicines in the treatment. Those recommended for the relief of such symptoms almost invariably contain the coal-tar preparation, most of which depress the heart and are dangerous. Consult a good physician and do not fill the system with dope.

In Memoriam—Adolph Dettmer.

On Sunday, January 9, 1916, there passed into eternity Mr. Adolph Dettmer, of Pilot Knob, Mo., a man well known in, and an esteemed citizen of Iron County.

The deceased was born in Gross-freden, Hanover, Germany, on the 4th day of August, 1839. When he was 18 years of age he came to America with his parents. The voyage was made in a sailing ship, and after nearly eleven weeks, they landed in New Orleans. From New Orleans the party traveled via the Mississippi River, and eventually reached Pilot Knob where Mr. Dettmer resided nearly all his life.

On the 25th day of April, 1861, he was united in holy matrimony with Elisa Arnoldi. To this union nine children were born, five sons and four daughters. Three daughters preceded Mr. Dettmer into eternity.

In the year 1861 on the 28th day of June Mr. Dettmer was enrolled as a private of Captain Fred. Schmitz's Independent Missouri Home Guard and was honorably discharged again in the same year on the 13th day of October. In the year 1862, on the 19th day of August, Mr. Dettmer was enrolled again as a Private of Lieut. F. W. von Radungen's Company, D., Second Regiment of Missouri Lt. Artillery, and after seeing active service in several states he was honorably discharged in the year 1865, on the 14th day of August.

After the war he worked several years at the Furnace of Pilot Knob. Later he moved to a farm near there and spent about thirty years farming. In the year 1903 Mr. Dettmer moved back to Pilot Knob where he spent the remainder of his life.

In the week preceding the day of his death he contracted a severe cold which later developed into bronchitis and which resulted in his unexpected death. His age was 76 years, 5 months and 5 days. He leaves to mourn his loss a sorrowing aged widow, one brother, Theodore, five sons, Adolph, Charles, Frank, Fred, Louis, one daughter, Mrs. Dora Patterson, 23 grandchildren, 2 great grandchildren.

Mr. Dettmer was an earnest and consistent member of the Lutheran Church all his life, having already joined the same during his youth in the land of his birth. Whenever possible Mr. Dettmer would pick his way to the historic Lutheran Church at the foot of Cedar Hill, Pilot Knob, to hear the everlasting and saving gospel. He was also interested in missions and other institutions of the church which served to spread the gospel.

The undersigned officiated at the funeral of the deceased, which was largely attended in spite of the inclement weather. The undersigned based his address on the words of Hebrews, 12:14 the solemn truth and comfort of which he had realized during his life. These are the words: "Here we have no continuing city, but we seek one to come."

In conclusion, Mr. Dettmer's sincere faith in his Redeemer who gained Heaven for him, finds its expression in the following lines:

Jerusalem, thou city fair and high,
Would God I were in thee!
My longing heart fain, fain to thee would fly,
It will not stay with me.
Far over vale and mountain
Far over field and plain,
It hastes to seek its fountain,
And quit this world of pain.
H. C. HARTING, Pastor.
